Music, Words, and Nationalism Javier Moreno-Luzón, María Nagore-Ferrer, 2024-01-29 Music Words and Nationalism National Anthems and Songs in the Modern Era considers the concept of nationalism from 1780 to 2020 through anthems and national songs as symbolic and representative elements of the national identity of individuals peoples or collectivities The volume shows that both the words and music of these works reveal a great deal about the defining features of a nation its political and cultural history and its self perception The book takes an interdisciplinary approach that provides a better understanding of the role of national anthems and songs in the expression of national identities and nationalistic goals From this perspective the relationship between hymns and political contexts their own symbolic content both literary and musical and the role of specific hymns in the construction of national sentiments are surveyed

The Worst Songs in the World David Pate, 2024-08-06 The best known songs in the world are violent sexist and religious so why do we celebrate national anthems when we should be rewriting them The story begins in a London theatre in 1745 where the modern idea of anthems started out as triumphant expressions of national superiority They glorified violence claimed the support of God for their country and mostly ignored women David Pate says it s time to dump lyrics about cutting throats watering fields with blood building walls with the bodies of enemies and celebrating the sound of machine guns From the author s own youth as a schoolboy in Scotland when he was caned for refusing to sing God Save the Queen to the ubiquity of anthems in sports and as weapons for extreme patriotism The Worst Songs in the World looks at the origins of many of the world s anthems including the movie theme song that became China s national anthem and the English tune used for The Star Spangled Banner This wide ranging deeply researched narrative combines politics personalities humour and vivid storytelling to argue for what we should all want better national songs
